

PRESS RELEASE – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

9th June 2010

CRIMSONWING CELEBRATED AS COUNTRY REPRESENTATIVE IN EUROPEAN BUSINESS AWARDS EVENT

Yesterday, the European Business Awards, sponsored by HSBC, held a prestigious event to recognise the success of those companies selected as Country Representatives for Malta.

Crimsonwing was acknowledged as one of the leading organisations in the country. Having accomplished this, Crimsonwing is now through to the next stage of the competition, where they will battle it out against other companies from across Europe to scoop a Ruban d'Honneur.

James Bonello, Managing Director of Crimsonwing, accepted the certificate at the prestigious event held at the Hilton Hotel in Malta and said: "It is a great pleasure to have the opportunity to be at this prestigious event today and to be able to accept this certificate as proof of our hard work and our employees' dedication. To be accompanied by all of Malta's best businesses is a great honour."

Over 3500 companies from 8 countries have been engaged with the Awards during the first stage of the Awards and of these, Crimsonwing is one of the 175 companies to be selected as Country representative. Those selected scored highly in a two stage judging process.

The European Business Awards is dedicated to raising the visibility and progress of companies who excel in delivering innovation twinned with successful commercial results whilst acting responsibly and positively affecting the social environment they operate in.
